Sample Program

This appendix contains the program `stencil_5_time1.fcm`, a 5-point stencil computed on a detailed-layout array. It illustrates the “detailed control” programming style that localizes operations on-processor and thus eliminates needless communication.